THIS MATTER comes now before the Court sua sponte to amend the Case Management Order filed on July 1, 2009 (Doc. No. 15). That Order mistakenly states that this matter shall be tried with a jury. The Court now amends that Order to state that this shall be a bench trial. In addition, Section 4(a) of that Order reflects the parties' estimate that trial will take one week. The Court amends that time frame, estimating that a bench trial in this case should take no more than one to two days. The Case Management Order is hereby AMENDED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Signed: July 2, 2009
